The Central Wisconsin Society for Human Resource Management is affiliated with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). The purpose of the Central Wisconsin Society for Human Resource Management is:

- ◆ To promote and professionalize Human Resources administration and encourage good Human Resources practices.
- ◆ To further the education of members in current Human Resources practices and philosophies.
- ◆ To discuss problems of mutual interest to those engaged in the Human Resources field in the areas of business, industry, education, and government.
- ◆ To establish a free communication process among members of the Association.
- ◆ Membership is open to any individual who spends a substantial portion of his/her time in human resources management or in its various phases.

The Mission of CWSHRM is to provide information, education, leadership, and networking opportunities to promote excellence and professionalism in Human Resource Management.

Benefits of Membership

Membership Meetings – Regular meetings, held on the second Thursday of the month, include a light meal, guest speakers on varied HR topics and legal/legislative updates by our Chapter Legal Counsel.

HR Roundtable – These roundtables will provide an open forum, best practice sharing, honest communication, and confidential peer discussion.

Comprehensive Salary and Benefit Survey - This survey of wages and benefits for various area businesses is offered to members at a discount.

Certification Study Materials & Study Group – Various study materials are available for members preparing for certification at a discounted rate. Study groups are organized two times per year to discuss and review topics relevant to the certification exams.

Recertification Credits – In 2016, CWSHRM will be offering both HRCI pre-approved programs, as well as SHRM certified programs for credit.

Annual Spring HR Conference – This annual program is held each April, featuring both a keynote and closing speaker. The conference focuses on a variety of Human Resource Management issues.

Annual Fall Labor Law Clinic – This clinic is sponsored each October in conjunction with Ruder Ware. Attorneys from Ruder Ware, specializing in labor and employment law, present workshops on various labor and employment law topics. Members attending this clinic receive a discounted admission rate.

Periodic Legal Update Email – Periodic legal updates emailed to members from Ruder Ware.

Board and Member Scholarships – Awarded to assist members attending SHRM Annual and State Conferences plus National and State Leadership Conferences.

Resume and Job Opportunity Information – Made available at regular membership meetings.

Networking – Excellent networking opportunities with peers from similar industries, as well as other areas.
